A quite spectacular Finca located high in the hills of La Mairena, this is a dream location for those seeking silence and an idyllic lifestyle situated in stunning surroundings. Set in a plot of 10,000m2, this Finca was finished in 2007 and is built over two levels, with a built size of 272m2 and terraces of 40m2. The Finca has the traditional Spanish theme and ambience plus all the modern day comforts one requires. This beautiful house is built at ground level and possesses a main bedroom with dressing room and an adjacent large bathroom. In addition, the main house has two guest bedrooms and a shared bathroom. All bedrooms have air conditioning. The large granite-wood kitchen is next to the dining room. A large fireplace separates visually the dining room from the large living room. A separate guest WC, a box room and a laundry room complete the main house. The house is throughout heated with central oil. The Finca is accessed via a private road which spirals to a main electric gated private entrance, up the hill where you enter the large blocked circular driveway, the surrounding gardens and tropical plants are quite simply beautiful. Additional features include a large swimming pool 8x4 with an electric cover and a heating pump for the winter, garage for 4 cars, oil heating, internet access plus much more. We highly recommend viewing of this lovely Finca, offers are invited in the region of €895,000. Possibility to buy more land around it.
